

First Lady Luevenia “Lue” Keeling

Lady Lue is one of the most honorable women of today. She is a forward thinker, always has a radiant demeanor, and has a beautiful spirit. As First Lady of Unity & Faith Ministries, the greatest evidence of her success is her desire to continue to promote growth in others. She has been the greatest supporter of her husband since 1983 when they first met.

She has worked as a medical assistant while attending school to become a Surgical Technician. Before embarking on a career in the medical field, she worked for the City of Los Angeles, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Sierra Medical Group, Security Pacific Bank, and Wells Fargo Bank.

First Lady Keeling accepted Christ as her savior at an early age at New Pleasant Grove MBC of Los Angeles, under the pastorate of the late Reverend William H. Charles Sr. She was a member of the youth choir, which she continued in her adult years.

First Lady Keeling continued to utilize her God-Given talents to work in the Lord's house in a variety of positions: Choir Director, Nurse's Guild, Usher Board, Youth Director, Church Clerk, Trustee & Deaconess Boards, Praise Dance Coordinator, and Sunday School Teacher.

First Lady Keeling is a natural leader, who takes great pride in being a “Doer.” She is a “Woman of Vision,” and a great teacher. She is a mentor to young women, a counselor, and a supporter to young girls, and adults alike.

First Lady Keeling is a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and a great mentor.
